

Humboldt Kolleg

Hilton Garden Inn Hotel, Doamnei St. 12, Bucharest
18-22 November 2020

Global Challenges of the 21st Century

- 1) Technological development and human health/ quality of life*
- 2) Climate change and environmental sustainability*
- 3) Democracy and cohesion in Europe*

Opportunities for Research Offered by the DAAD

Short introduction on the available funding and the application process.

Michael Jaumann ist seit 2017 Lektor des Deutschen Akademischen Austauschdienstes an der ASE und zugleich Leiter des DAAD-Informationszentrums in Bukarest. Im Rahmen seiner Tätigkeit arbeitet er für die Internationalisierung der rumänischen und deutschen Hochschulen und die akademische Mobilität zwischen den beiden Ländern. Für den DAAD war er zuvor bereits in Lettland und in Kasachstan tätig.

Michael Jaumann hat an der Universität Augsburg und der University of Pittsburgh, USA, studiert. Publikationen zu DaF und Landeskunde, deutschsprachiger Gegenwartsliteratur, deutscher Literatur- und Kulturgeschichte im Vergleich.

Since 2017, Michael Jaumann works as director of the DAAD Information Centre (German Academic Exchange Service) in Bucharest. He is also teaching as a visiting lecturer funded by the DAAD at the Academy of Economic Studies. With his work for the Information Centre he is supporting the internationalization of Romanian and German universities and the academic mobility between the two countries. He used to work for the DAAD in Latvia and Kazakhstan before.

Michael Jaumann studied at the Universities of Augsburg, Germany, and Pittsburgh, USA. His publications concentrate on the teaching of German as a foreign language and culture, contemporary German literature, literary and cultural history.